September 2006

Dear Friends of Chamber Music:

The Longmeadow Chamber Music Society is pleased to announce its 24th season of presenting three diverse chamber music concerts featuring masterpieces from all periods of music performed by professional musicians from the Pioneer Valley area.

The fall concert will be on Friday, November 10th, 2006 at 8 p.m. at First Church of Christ in Longmeadow and will feature music for oboe and strings. The performers are all Springfield Symphony musicians: Fred Cohen, oboe, Marsha Harbison, violin, RonGorevic, viola, and Boris Kogan, cello. The concert will include oboe quartets by Mozart, Benjamin Britten, and more.

The winter concert, on Friday, January 26th, 2007 at 8 p.m. at the First Church of Christ in Longmeadow will feature the Schubert cello quintet and more music for strings to be announced. The performers will include the husband and wife duo: Joel Pitchon, violin, Volcy Pelletier, cello, and Marsha Harbison, violin, Ron Gorevic, viola, and Boris Kogan, cello.

The spring concert, on Sunday, April 15th, 2007 at 3 p.m. at the First Church of Christ in Longmeadow will feature music for brass quintet and saxophone by F. Tull, plus more to be announced. Lynn Klock, saxophone, will be performing with the Clarion Brass Quintet: Karen Atherton and Sheldon Ross, trumpets, Margot Rowland, horn, Ben Smar, trombone, and Gary Sienkiwicz, tuba.

A tax deductible family donation of $50 ($25 single) will provide admission to all concerts. A reception will follow each concert.

These concerts are sponsored in part by generous donations from Health New England, the Longmeadow Cultural Council, area businesses, and our loyal patrons. Thank you very much for your support. We look forward to a great 24th season.

Sincerely,

Co-Directors William Harbison, M.D.

Thomas Rowland, M.D.
