Program Coordinator

ADULT FOCUS ON LONGMEADOW

Our panel of John Bowen, John Carey, Jim Jones, Ellie Tyson will be interviewing Health Dept. Director Beverly Hirschhorn concerning a new function of the Dept. – The Medical Reserve Corps- which is composed of a volunteer corps of medical professionals as well as non-professionals for public health response to town emergencies. Beverly is presently working with many volunteers, but more, including seniors, are needed. She will explain the functions and purposes of the Corp. It is aired on Tuesdays at 6:30pm and 9:30am and Sundays at 10:30am on Channel 12, LCTV. The first half hour will be rerun for the month of April and the second half in May. Suggestions call Norice at 565-4150.

SYMPHONY LUNCH CONCERT Friday, April 24th, 11:00 AM

The last 50 minute lunch concert of the season featuring musical excerpts from the performance being given on Saturday night, dispersed with dialogue by Kevin Rhodes. This concert features an Opera Gala as Maestro Rhodes hosts an informative and sometimes irreverent look at the world of Opera with favorites from La Boheme, Rigoletto, The Barber of Seville, Don Giovanni, etc. $12.50 for admission. Optional box lunch $7.50. Van Fee: $3. Program starts at 12:30 pm.

JOURNEY TO JAZZ NAT KING COLE

Tuesday, April 28th @ 1:00-2:30 PM

JAZZ - as it was played and sung by COLE and his trio throughout the decade of the 40's. The tunes are catchy ("Hit that Jive Jack"), they swing ("Hit the Ramp") or they are very melodic ("Sweet Lorraine" and "Embraceable You".) Cole's singing is fantastic and his piano work is spectacular. This will be another "Journey to Jazz" afternoon you will not want to miss.

OVER SIXTY CLUB

NOTE DATE CHANGE

Thursday, April 9 – 1:00 pm. Please note meeting is the second Thursday of the month. Come and enjoy an afternoon of friendship and information. Chris Graziano, grower and owner of Graziano Gardens in E. Longmeadow for 25 years will be our speaker. He is a graduate of Stockbridge School of Agriculture at U. Mass. His subject will be Proven Winners brand of annuals. Question and answer period will follow. Bring a friend.

LOST – A coat at the last Over 60 Club meeting on 3/5. A three-quarter length black coat with one silver button missing. A similar coat was left at the meeting. Please, if you accidentally picked up the wrong coat, come exchange it for your own at the Adult Center Office. Owner will be very grateful for its return.
