Digital TV Conversion What's It All About?

December 1st, 1:00 PM

Do you have questions about the Digital Television Transition? Will your television be ready on February 17, 2009? Find the answer to these and other questions you may have when Dennis Loria, the Boston District Director for the Federal Communications Commission will address your questions. He will cover the important topics on the television conversion including, What is the Digital TV Transition, Why the switch, and What should I do to be ready. He will also answer any other questions you may have. Please register for this informative presentation by calling 565-4150.
